

Royal Family KIDS Camp Social Covenant

Purpose:

It is our goal to serve and love children in foster care. We commit to giving them our full attention and focus during the week of camp. This requires us to put our personal lives...our issues, preferences, and comforts aside while serving at camp.

Personal Character:

I will strive to exhibit the "fruit of the spirit" ... love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, faithfulness, and self-control, in my interactions with others (Gal. 5:13-25; Eph. 3:20).

In serving as a Christian role model to campers and staff, I will refrain from the use of alcohol, marijuana, or any illegal drugs. I will abstain from profanity or any coarse talk including off-color jokes. I will be careful with what I view on the Internet and my cell phone, making sure that it is wholesome and beneficial.

As a Royal Family Staff Member, I realize my life must be measured by Biblical standards. As a Christ follower, my life should reflect Christian values. Therefore, I will not be involved in any activity that would compromise my testimony or the testimony of Portland Christian Center.

I agree to not pursue dating relationships while at camp and will protect and preserve the marriage boundaries of others. (Ephesians 5:3-4)

Restoration Policy:

If an offense is made to or received from another I agree to apply the bible model of reconciliation found in Matthew 18:15-17.

- If another staff member offends you, lovingly confront him or her in private.
- If the situation is not resolved, take another person with you and try again to resolve the conflict.
- If the person refuses to listen, the leadership should be notified.
- Please do not come to leadership with a problem without going through the above steps first.
- Gossip will not be tolerated. If there is an issue with another staff member, please humbly speak with that person and seek to resolve the conflict.

I commit to live by the above statements as a condition for being a volunteer at Royal Family Kids Portland.
